A Risk Mitigation Company

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 4, 2009

CANPRO® GLOBAL ASSISTS CORPORATIONS TO MITIGATE RISK DURING CHALLENGING ECONOMIC TIMES

Vancouver, BC Canpro Global has unveiled a full suite of risk mitigation services to assist corporations dealing with the complex issues of the global economic crisis. “Terrorism, targeted violence, threats, sabotage, internal theft, insecurity”. In any time of instability, especially during an economic downturn, attention naturally turns to protecting assets, staff, reputations and income”, says Robert Burns, Canpro Global President and CEO.

Canpro created five specialized subsidiaries: Canpro Investigations, Canpro Risk Solutions, Canpro Training Resources, Canpro Human Resources and Canpro Labour Risk Management.

Industry will be provided with the tools, strategies and expert consultants to identify, quantify and manage exposure to risk. “Our new brands put a single, instantly recognizable identity on global risk mitigation services, with international offices now operating in Canada, Abu Dhabi, Uganda, Iraq, Cyprus and other regions, Canpro has proven itself worthy of the name, Global Services”.

Canpro Global previously, operated under the following brands: Canpro Pacific Services Inc., Shepp Johnman Investigations, FBIG Incorporated and Bison Security Group. “Separately these industry leaders provided excellence in their respective fields, together, we now form a comprehensive, integrated solution to risk mitigation,” says Burns. This formal unveiling of the new Canpro Global brand identity represents a significant milestone in the company’s history and further reinforces their mark as one of Canada’s preeminent risk mitigation and investigative service companies.
